

Corona-19 virus: National Day of Prayer, March 15, 2020 (revised June 28, 2020)

Father we thank you that this corona-19 virus that the enemy has tried to form against us shall not prosper. We call this virus out just as David called out Goliath as an enemy of the armies of God. We declare you, corona-19, to be subject to the name of Jesus. In the name of Jesus we command you to be cut off, plucked up by the roots, and cast into the sea, you and every relative of yours. We pull down your strongholds, enemy, including your agents of chaos and confusion and anarchy and your every attempt to steal, kill, or destroy us as a people and as a nation.

Father, we thank you that you have given us authority to stomp on the serpent and the scorpion and over all the power of the enemy. We do so now in the name of your Son, and we thank you for dispatching your innumerable angels to keep us in all our ways so no evil shall befall us and no plague shall come near our dwelling. And we thank you, Jesus, that your stripes have healed us and that we are covered by your blood.

Father, we ask you, that because of your Son's stripes that you would unleash a wave of healing and restoration across our land. May we be restored both physically and economically and delivered from fear. Protect and bless all those, Lord, including our police officers, who are doing what they know to do for us as a people. We pray for all who are in authority that they may see clearly what is the right thing to do for their people and for the courage to do that right thing. We pray specifically today for President Trump and Vice President Pence and for their families, that you would protect them from all harm and that you would give them wisdom in the face of fear to know what you want them to do, that they might fully cooperate with your plans to deliver us from evil. And may you silence and shame any who have sought to use this work of the enemy for their personal and political advantage.

Outfitted in your armor we submit ourselves to you, O God, and with the mighty weapons of our warfare we go out to stand against the devil in this evil day, against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places causing them to flee from us. We pull down the enemy's strongholds; we cast down fears and imaginations and every arrogant thing that exalts itself against You. For we are your army, O God, fully equipped. We hear your voice and we follow you.

Now, Lord, may you, not man, receive all glory and honor for delivering us from every evil that stalks our land and may Your will be done on earth even as it is in Heaven.

In the name of Jesus. Amen
