

My Morning Prayer

Applying God's Word:

(Col 3:16 NIV) Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly as you teach and admonish one another with all wisdom, and as you sing psalms, hymns and spiritual songs with gratitude in your hearts to God.

(Heb 4:12 KJV) For the word of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any two edged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart.

(John 15:7 KJV) If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you.

(Deu 4:9 NIV) Only be careful, and watch yourselves closely so that you do not forget the things your eyes have seen or let them slip from your heart as long as you live.

Teach them to your children and to their children after them.

(Deu 11:18-19 NIV) Fix these words of mine in your hearts and minds; tie them as symbols on your hands and bind them on your foreheads. {19} Teach them to your children, talking about them when you sit at home and when you walk along the road, when you lie down and when you get up.

(Deu 6:6-7 NKJV) And these words, which I command you this day, shall be in your heart: {7} And you shall teach them diligently unto your children, and shall talk of them when you sit in your house, and when you walk by the way, and when thou lie down, and when thou rise up.

My Prayer:

(Psalm 119:11) I will hide your Word in my heart, Lord, that I might not sin against you. (Proverbs 4:20-22) I will attend to your words; I will incline my ears unto your sayings; I will not let them depart from my eyes; I will keep them in the midst of my heart. For they are life to those of us who find them and health to all our flesh.

(Lam. 3:22) I thank you, Lord, that your mercies are new every morning and (Psalms 68:19) that you daily "load me down" with benefits.

(Psalms 103:1) Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all His benefits. I thank you, Lord, that you have forgiven all my iniquities, you have healed all my diseases, you have redeemed my life from destruction, you have crowned me with lovingkindness and tender mercies, and that you even satisfy my mouth with good things so my youth is renewed as the eagle.

(Jer. 29:11) I thank you, Lord, that your plans for me are plans for good and not for evil that I might have a future and a hope. (III John v.2) And that you wish above all things that I may prosper and be in health even as my soul prospers. (Col. 1:13) For you have delivered me from the power of darkness and have translated me into the kingdom of your dear Son, (Heb. 10:14) whose one offering has made me forever perfect in your sight.

(Psalm 91: 8-11) Destruction shall not come near me; no evil shall befall me, no plague shall come nigh my dwelling because I have made you my refuge, my habitation and you have given your angels charge over me to keep me in all my ways. (Psalm 34:19) Though many be the afflictions of the righteous, you deliver me out of them all, (I Peter 5:7) for you are always thinking of me and watching everything that concerns me. (1 Cor. 10:13) You never allow any trial to come my way that is beyond my ability, but with every trial you provide a way of escape that I might be able to stand up under it.

(Luke 10:19) You have even given me authority to tread upon the serpent and the scorpion and over all the power of the enemy and nothing shall by any means harm me, (II Cor. 10:4) And the weapons of my warfare are not carnal but mighty through you to the pulling down of strongholds, casting down imaginations and every high thing that exalts itself against what I know about you, Lord.

(Rom. 8:1) Thank you that there is therefore now no condemnation toward me because I am in Christ Jesus, that I have been set free from the law of sin and death. (Gal. 3:13) Thank you, Jesus, for redeeming me from the curse of the Law, that the blessing of Abraham might come upon me and overtake me: (Deut. 28:1) that I might be blessed when I come in and blessed when I go out; that I might be the head and not the tail, above and not beneath; that you may bless everything I set my hand to and make me "plenteous in goods"; that when my enemy comes out against me one way, he will flee before me seven ways (I John 4:4) for greater is He that is in me, than he that is in the world.

(Psalms 31: 1-8, 15-16, 19-24) Lord I trust in you alone. Don't let my enemy defeat me. Thank you for rescuing me because you are the God who always does what is right. Thank you for answering quickly when I cry to you; for bending low and hearing my whispered plea. (Psalm 91:14-15) Because I have set my love upon YOU, therefore YOU will deliver me; YOU will set me on high because I have known YOUR name. I shall call upon YOU, and YOU will answer me. YOU will be with me in trouble. YOU will deliver me and honor me. Be for me a great rock of safety from my foe. Yes, you are my Rock and my Fortress. Honor your name by leading me out of this peril. Pull me from the trap my enemy has set for me. For you alone are strong enough; into your hand I commit my spirit.

I am radiant with joy, Lord, because of your mercy. For you have listened to my troubles and have seen the crisis in my soul. You have not handed me over to my enemies, but have given me open ground in which to maneuver.

But I am trusting in you, Lord; for you alone are God. My times are in your hands. Rescue me from those who hunt me down relentlessly. Let your favor shine again upon your servant. Save me just because you are so kind.

Oh how great is your goodness, Lord, to those who publicly declare that You will rescue them. For you have stored up great blessings for those who trust and reverence you.

Hide me today, Lord, along with my family, as your loved ones in the shelter of your presence; safe beneath your hand; safe from all conspiring men. Blessed are you, Lord, for you have shown me that your never-failing love protects me like the walls of a fort. I spoke too hastily when I said, "The Lord has deserted me." For you have listened to my plea and answered me.

Help me, Lord, to love you today, as one of your people. (Rom. 8:5) Fill me, Holy Spirit, and help me to let you be in control that I might find myself doing those things that please my Heavenly Father. (Psalm 31:23) For you, Lord, protect those who are loyal to you, but harshly punish all who haughtily reject you. So I will cheer up and be encouraged, for I am depending on you, Lord.

(Phillipians 4:19) You supply all my needs according to your riches in glory by Christ Jesus. (II Cor. 9:8) May You make all grace—every favor and earthly blessing—come to me in abundance that I might always, under all circumstances, and whatever the need, be self-sufficient—possessing enough to require no aid or support and furnished in abundance for every good work and charitable donation.

(Psalms 23) For You are my good shepherd, I shall not want. You make me to lie down in green pastures. You lead me beside the still waters. You restore my soul. You lead me in paths of righteousness for your name sake. Yes, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil for you are with me. Your rod and your staff, they comfort me. You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies. You anoint my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely, goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my long life with which you satisfy me (Psalm 91:16), and I will dwell in your house, Lord, forever.

I love you, Lord, for your mercy never fails me
All my life I've been held in your hand,
From the moment that I wake up until I lay my head
I will sing of the goodness of God

I love your voice, you have led me through the fire
In the darkest night you are close like no other
I've known you as a father, I've known you as a friend
And I have lived in your goodness, oh God
